

PSEUDOCODE

1) User Registration and Login

Start

    User open login page

    Input username, password

    System checks login details

    If login details are correct

        System allows user to access the system

    Else if

        System display “invalid username or password”

    Else

        User enter registration page to register account

End if

End

2) VIEW JOB VACANCIES

Start

User selects “view job vacancies”

System checks whether job vacancies exist

If job vacancies exist

System display job vacancies list

Else

System display “No job vacancies available”

End if

User choose to search for a job

If user choose to search

User enter job title or company name

System display matching job vacancies

End if

User selects a job

System display job detailed

End

3) SUBMIT JOB APPLICATION

Start

User selects a job to apply

User fills in application form

User uploads resume

Systems checks whether all required information is complete

If information is complete then

    System submits application

    Systems displays “Application submitted successfully”

Else

    System displays “Please complete all required information”

End if

End

4) Application Status Tracking

Start

User logs into system

User selects “My Applications”

System retrieves application status

System displays application status to user

End

Employer Review Application

Start

Employer logs into system

Employer selects job posting

Systems displays list of job application

Employer reviews application

Employer updates applications status

System saves updated status

End

